FALLING IN LINE FOR THE MARKETING PLAN

Woodford county joined Carroll, Bourbon and Montgomery, Friday, in the list of Central Kentucky counties that have gone over the top in the campaign for signatures to the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association contract, but Chairman Robert S. Walker said the campaign would go on in Woodford until the entire crop is signed up to the present pool.

More than a hundred acres were signed up in Scott county by men who resided in Georgetown, but have farms out in the county, following a meeting in Georgetown, at which Chairman Reuben F. Offutt presided. The visit of Congressman Cantrell to Stamping Ground resulted in a number of signatures and his address at Sadieville also was productive of favorable results, though no figures were available.

A. L. Ferguson, former vice-president of the Old Burley Tobacco Society, warned the growers of Scott not to be misled by propaganda circulated against the co-operative marketing plan. He declared that agents of "Big Four" among the buyers, the four leading manufacturing corporations, had been active in spreading certain reports and he related some of these to the crowd. He said it was false information that was being circulated and he urged that it be considered and the actual facts learned before the grower made up his mind as to the course he should finally follow in the matter of signing or staying out of the association.

BOURBON GUN CLUB

The Bourbon Gun Club held an all-day shoot on the Club grounds in East Paris. The event followed the all-day shoot held on the Hilltop Gun Club grounds, near Austerlitz. Six handsome trophies were given away, and the Kentucky Challenge Club was shot for. The following were winners of the trophies: Woolfolk Henderson, the Lafayette Hotel Trophy, a silver pitcher; Alfred Clay, the long run trophy, a silver loving cup; Tom Hinkle, Consolation Trophy, two silver drinking cups; Roxie Davis, the B. O. A. Trophy, a hammered silver loving cup; J. A. Groves, ("Black Diamond Jim"), the Professional High Gun Trophy, a fine Bourbon county cooked ham. Jim said it sure did look good to him. While the shooters and others were enjoying the bountiful luncheon, a heavy rain and wind storm came up, lasting about an hour. Then the sun came out, and the shooters were able to finish the program. The scores were as follows:

BLIND CHILD RECOVERS SIGHT ON EVE OF OPERATION

(Louisville Herald, Aug. 31)

(An Explanation)

How sight was restored to 5-year-old Reba Jackson, suddenly blinded while at play, just as the child was being prepared to undergo a surgical operation in hope of relief from the mysterious cause of her condition, was told by her mother, Mrs. Margaret Jackson, at her home, 311 Central Ave., yesterday. The touch of a doctor's hands, the "cracking sound of bones snapped into place," relieving pressure from a hidden nerve, and the blind child saw, the mother said.

"I'm blind. I can't see you, mother!" Reba cried, staggering into her home August 12 from her play. The little hands were feeling along the walls and staircase. No one knew what had happened except that darkness had closed down on a pair of bright eyes.

Physicians and surgeons consulted and decided an operation would reveal and relieve the difficulty, as the symptoms indicated the forming of pus behind the seat of vision. Two openings in the skull over the temples would prove a drain and perhaps give back the lost vision. Then friends bethought them of a practitioner, who, with his hands, they said, sometimes cured mysterious troubles found due to unnatural pressure on nerves, while the entire congregation of Mrs. Jackson's church offered special prayers for the afflicted child and her distressed mother.

Mrs. Jackson summoned the practitioner the day before Reba was to undergo the operation. "He just cracked several vertebrae near the neck into place," the mother said. "Reba thought then she saw a light flash across her eyes, but could not distinguish objects." Next day the nurse came from the hospital to take her there.

"Mother, what are you doing? My eyes are opening—I can see daylight. Why, you are rubbing your cheek," the child cried. Her sight was restored. The nurse went back to the hospital and a happy woman hugged her baby, who could once more see. Mrs. Jackson is a widow with three children and conducts a rooming house next door to the South Louisville police station.

This article appeared in The Herald Monday morning and was widely discussed during the day. Much speculation was indulged in as to how, and by whom, my little girl's vision was restored. Many seemed to get the impression that it was Christian Science or some form of "laying on of hand" or a faith cure, as I had mentioned to the reporter that the entire congregation of my church had prayed for Reba. I did not intend to convey the thought that my daughter's eyes were miraculously restored—while it seemed almost like a miracle. I believe in giving credit where credit is due, and I believe the public is entitled to know the truth about this case as it has been presented in somewhat of a mysterious way in the newspaper. Dr. W. H. Dunn, a Chiropractor, of 216 Norton Building, adjusted the bones in Reba's neck and her vision returned. She was so completely blind that she could not distinguish the brightest light. Words can not express my appreciation for what Chiropractic has done for Reba, and I am publishing this so that the public may know to whom belongs the credit for restoring my little daughter's sight. Dr. Dunn used nothing but his hands to perform the operation and it was done in a few seconds.

Gratefully,

MRS. MARGARET JACKSON.

WILL OF JOHN T. COLLINS PROBED

The last will and testament of the late John T. Collins, banker, farmer and tobacco man, who died at his home near North Middletown some time ago, was filed Friday in the office of County Clerk Pearce Paton for probate. The instrument, which bore date of Oct. 24, 1918, with a codicil added on July 16, 1921, was witnessed by John W. Jones and Frank W. Sled.

Under provisions of the will Mr. Collins' widow, Mrs. Mary Collins, and son, William Collins, were named, as executors, which was confirmed by their appointment by County Judge George Batterton. The will bequeaths his entire estate to his wife, Mrs. Mary Collins, with instructions to "make a fair and just division among our children, when, in her judgment, it seems best." The text of the will is as follows:

"Realizing the uncertainty of life, I make and declare this my last will and testament, it being the only will ever made by me.

"First, I want all my just debts and funeral expenses paid as promptly as possible.

"Second, I will to my wife, Mary Collins, all property of every kind, both real and personal, of which I am possessed at the time of my death. I do this because of the uncertainty naturally attached to return of my son, William, from the war, and I trust my wife to make a fair and just division of the estate among our children, when, in her judgment, it seems best.

"Third, I appoint my wife executor of this will and request the court to require no bond of her. Written by me with my own hand this, the 24th day of October, 1918.

"JOHN T. COLLINS."

"I John T. Collins, of Bourbon county, Kentucky, on the 16th day of July, 1921, do declare this codicil to be part of my last will and testament, in manner and form following:

"Whereas, In paragraph three of my last will and testament I did appoint my wife, Mary Collins, as executor of my last will and testament, I do now revoke said paragraph three, and do appoint my wife, Mary Collins, and my son, William Collins, as executrix and executor of this my last will and testament, and I further direct that they shall not be required to give bond or security for the proper discharge of their duties.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name on the day and year above mentioned, in the presence of John W. Jones and F. W. Sled, whom I have requested to become attesting witnesses hereto.

"JNO. T. COLLINS."

COMMERCIAL CLUB DELEGATES ATTEND ROAD MEETING

Through representations made by the Bourbon county delegation at the meeting of the Dixie Highway Association, held in Cincinnati, last Friday, a strong argument was advanced urging the adoption of the present Bluegrass Highway, running from Cincinnati through Falmouth, Cynthiana and Paris, as part of the contemplated Dixie Highway system.

The Paris party was composed of the following ten members of the Paris Commercial Club: Judge Denis Dundon, Mayor E. B. January, Secretary Wm. E. Hacker, County Judge George Batterton, Fred M. Fister, Wade H. Whitley, James Day, John F. Davis, B. J. Santen and M. Peale Collier. Judge Dundon acted as spokesman for the delegation, and pointed out to the directors that the present Bluegrass route is a safer and more scenic route between Cincinnati and Lexington, and in much better condition. He was followed by representatives from Cynthiana and Falmouth, who also urged adoption of this highway as part of the Dixie Highway. The Paris representatives spoke very highly of the hospitality shown the delegation during their stay.

BURGLARIOUS BURGLAR BAILED.

The attempt of a burglar to effect an entrance into the grocery store of L. R. Bramblette, at the corner of Main and Bank Row, was frustrated early Sunday morning by the timely appearance of Charles Peddicord, who rooms in the two story building on the opposite side of Main street. Hearing a peculiar noise Mr. Peddicord went to the window of his room and saw a man endeavoring to force the door on the Main street side of the grocery. He called out to know what was going on there, when the would-be burglar fled.

An investigation showed the burglar had cut a hole in the screen door large enough to get a hook through. He then pulled up the fastening of the screen door and was in the act of prying out the plate glass in the door when Mr. Peddicord discovered him. This is the seventh attempt at burglary in Paris in a few weeks, several being evidently successful.

BASEBALL NOTES

Lowering skies, rain and a general tendency on the part of the elements to make a disagreeable afternoon, did not dampen the ardor of baseball fans Sunday. Fans to the number of nine hundred gathered at the Second street ball park to witness the contest between the Paris Ruggles and the Centerville team, the former winning by a score of 12 to 2.

The game was featured by fine fielding and batting by Mann and Woods, and the pitching of Campanoni, the Ruggles crack twirler, who struck out eleven Centerville batsmen. The batters were: For Paris, Campanoni and Carter; for Centerville, Carter, Berryman and Ray. The game was umpired by Neal and Williams. The score by innings:

Centerville 000 100 001—2 5 3

A great game, a real game, is expected this (Tuesday) afternoon, when the Christian and Methodist teams in the Church League hook up for a contest at the Second street park. Both teams have been whetting their knives, figuratively speaking, for each other's scalp, and the palefaces may expect to see some hair-raising stunts pulled off on the diamond. The Methodist team is leading in the League race, having won two games and lost none, the Christian team taking second place with two games won and one lost. These games are drawing large crowds, and the boys are putting up excellent contests that are growing daily in favor with the fans. Attend this game and see "the greatest teams ever" in operation!

Former Secretary Elihu Root says his name is pronounced "El-a-hew," and may be pronounced "El-i-hew," but should not be pronounced "El-i-hoo!" But ours is a free country, especially in the matter of speech, and some persons persist in speaking of the "doo" on the grass.

While walking along Main street the other day a pedestrian picked up a set of false teeth for the lower jaw of a male person. The party no doubt lost them while gazing in open-mouthed admiration at some of the short skirts and pretty ankles seen on Main street.

In rummaging around a cave in the Southern part of Kentucky a few days ago, a party of scientists found a human jawbone which, they afterward declared, was not less than eight hundred years old. Wonder if the dentists in those days put dates on the plates.

A scientist declares that an angel more closely resembles an insect than a glorified human being. He may be right at that. But what we are positively sure of is that we are acquainted "right here in Paris" with several human insects who never will register in the divine entomology.

A fashion sharp just returned from Paris, France, announces that skirts will be longer, much longer, and waists higher. But what is much harder to believe is that, in spite of frantic struggles on the part of the great men of the art, prices, it is said, will be neither as high nor as long as they have been.

We can't recall just who wrote it. But, anyhow, those disarmament conferences, when they assemble, should bear in mind the significant fact that "a column twenty men abreast, marching sixty days and nights—that would be the parade of the dead who fell in the great war on the side of the Allies."

Is the Southern cotton crop failure a blessing in disguise? We asked that question of a Paris merchant, and already ten dollars has been added to the value of every bale, new or old, while stocks climb in sympathy. And, precisely as with grain, the farmer will reap the benefit. When he does everybody does. The same will apply to the tobacco crop.

We have figured it out that if the "cut-out" and speeding is not effectively stopped in Paris, the people will be nervous wrecks in something less than two hundred years.

Some of these big trucks that go racing through the streets, (and some that are not big) make the most hideous noises imaginable, said by many to be absolutely avoidable and entirely unnecessary.

The vacation season for this good year is now about over, and those who have been compelled to stay at home are by far the healthier, wealthier and wiser. This is not a case of "sour grapes," but real facts gleaned from those who have taken vacations. Many people in order to "keep up with Lizzie" will leave the best of homes and surroundings, and take a trip somewhere—and it matters not where—and put up with accommodations that they would turn up their noses at, at home. It is an unwritten law that if your neighbors go, thou hast to go likewise (if thou canst).

THE STUFF OF LIFE

This is from an advertisement for a typesetting machine, but it gives a vivid picture of the news that makes the country paper's place secure:

"Babies are born. Little boys in broad ties and little girls in bright frocks have their birthday parties. Lovers wed. Company comes. Folks go visiting. Men and women grow old, droop and die."

NEW TAX RATE TO BE CONSIDERED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Changes in the House Tax Bill, recommended Thursday to the Senate Finance Committee by A. W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, included:

Repeal of the excess profits tax effective as of last January first, instead of January first.

Retention of all of the transportation taxes for the calendar year 1922, but at half the present rates instead of complete repeal as of next January first.

Repeal of the capital stock tax effective next year, an entirely new proposal.

Reduction of the maximum income surtax rate from 63 per cent to 25 per cent effective January 1, 1922, instead of to 32 per cent as provided in the House Bill.

An increase of 5 per cent, instead of 2½ per cent in the normal corporation income tax, making the total 15 per cent, retroactive to last January first.

A manufacturers' tax on cosmetics and proprietary medicines to replace the present stamp taxes which were eliminated by the House.

Retention next year of the taxes on insurance premiums, but at one-half the present rates.

With these exceptions, the Treasury Secretary was understood to have approved the House measure with its provisions for an increase of $500 in the exemption to heads of families having net incomes of $5,000 a year or less and $200 additional for dependents; for decreased rates on sporting goods, yachts and furs and for manufacturers taxes on fountain syrup and other ingredients of soft drinks and in lieu of the present so-called nuisance taxes.

Mr. Mellon was before the committee at two sessions and there was a general discussion of his recommendations as well as of the probable revenue needs of the Government for the fiscal year. The Secretary placed these at $4,034,000,000 on the basis of the reduction in expenditures agreed upon at the White House tax conference last August 9th and estimated that $800,000,000 of this total would be raised from non-tax sources, such as customs, salves and the like, leaving $3,234,000,000 to come from internal taxes.

This total is $134,000,000 less than the estimated receipts under the House for this year, the difference being accounted for through repeal of the excess profits tax as of last January 1. It was to make up the loss from the profits tax that Mr. Mellon proposed an additional 2½ per cent increase in the corporation income tax, retention of the transportation and insurance premium taxes and restoration of the taxes on cosmetics and proprietary medicines.

The additional corporation income tax is estimated by Treasury officials to yield approximately $260,000,000 a year. The transportation tax would return $130,000,000 next year at half the present rates and the insurance taxes and the levees on cosmetics and medicines an additional $25,000,000.

Explaining his proposal for a further reduction of 7 per cent in the maximum income surtax rates, Mr. Mellon was said to have told the committee that the lower rate eventually would return greater yield to the Government than the 32 per cent rate, because additional money would be diverted to active business instead of being invested in tax exempt securities.

It was stated that there was no discussion of new sources of taxation and that none was recommended by Mr. Mellon who estimated that the House bill, as amended in accord with his recommendations would meet the needs of the Government, provided the economies agreed upon at the White House conference were effected.

He was said to have told the committee that he thought they would be and committee members generally were reported as having agreed with him.

As to the authorization in the House bill for the Treasury to issue $500,000,000, additional in short term notes, it was said officially that this had no relation to any anticipated deficit and was not wholly necessary as the Treasury had asked for it merely with the idea of having a little more margin in funding victory notes and certificates of indebtedness in short-term securities.

A tribute was paid to B. J. Durham at the lodge rooms of the Danville order of Odd Fellows, when he was presented with a life-size oil painting. The work was done by Mrs. A. B. Rue, of Harrodsburg. The picture was a token of appreciation of the work he has done in the past twenty-five years as secretary of the lodge. Mr. Durham has been a member of Central Lodge, No. 8, I. O. O. F., of Danville, since Feb. 11, 1887, and has been one of the most active members. He has been treasurer of the Grand Lodge for the past fifteen years. The portrait will be hung in the lodge room beside that of his father, M. J. Durham, who in his life time was one of the most prominent Odd Fellows in the U. S., having been Past Grand Sire, the highest office within the gift of the fraternity.

R. G. Elliott, of Lexington, Grand Secretary, made the presentation speech. Speeches were also made by Thomas Farnsworth, Harrodsburg, and Dr. W. H. Smith, Danville.

Some of those who have returned from their vacations have gotten rested up fairly well after a week's work.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a perfect pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. ### OLD PAPERS PRESENTED TO PARIS LIBRARY

During a recent visit to relatives in this city, Mr. E. K. Knapp, a former resident of Paris, now of Philadelphia, brought with a bound volume of copies of "The Saturday Night" of 1874-'75-'76, to be presented to the Public Library.

"The Saturday Night" was a little four-page weekly newspaper owned and published by the late Green R. Keller, who resided here for many years, and who was widely known as a newspaper man and politician.

This volume will be of interest to the older residents of Paris and Bourbon County, who will review the items relating to the business, the political, religious, educational and social interests of the community, also the deaths, marriages, births and advertisements, with feelings of mingled pleasure and sadness, recalling tender memories of the long ago.

Many, including the genial and popular editor of the bright little sheet, whose names and deeds are recorded in its columns, have long since passed to their reward, while others who are mentioned as figuring during their youthful days in the various activities of the community, are to-day among our most substantial and prominent citizens.

The following paragraph from a report of an open session of the "Cricket Club" of Miss Jessie Tipton's school, on March 12, 1875, is an example of how the youthful accomplishments of three of our well-known citizens were regarded at that time:

"Master Willie Hinton performed very well on the piano and deserved credit for his skill."

"Master Eddie Hinton delivered his speech very well."

"Miss Tipton, on the piano, and Master Isaac Price, on the violin, rendered some beautiful airs from the opera of "The Bohemian Girl."

The "hope," at the "Bourbon House," which in those days were occasions of rare enjoyment, attracting large crowds of pleasure-loving young people from all parts of the Bluegrass, are given prominent mention, and the gowns and jewels worn by the belles in attendance, are described very attractively.

The Debating Society, which included some brilliant young intellects, J. A. Buckler, A. M. Swope, G. C. Lockhart, G. T. Osborne, Garrett Davis, J. M. McCann, W. S. Jones, and others, held weekly debates upon the topics of the hour, as well as historic and economic subjects, and reviewed several times.

The frequent mention of Rev. W. T. Poynter, Eld. J. S. Sweeney, Rev. L. H. Blanton, Rev. Geo. S. Weeks and other ministers of blessed memory, will be very interesting to those who were acquainted with these beloved pastors.

Mr. Knapp, who was the carrier of The Saturday Night presents the volume to the Library with the understanding that it is not to be taken out, so that those who desire to peruse its pages will have to do so at the Library.

GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE BLAIR CASE

Investigation of the Blair pardon scandal, which caused widespread interest when the facts in the case were made public in June, is expected to be taken up by the Franklin county grand jury.

Victor L. Bradley, Commonwealth's Attorney, has announced that he will issue summonses for all believed to have any knowledge of the case. These are expected to include Governor Edwin P. Morrow, Maurice E. Galvin, Covington, Republican State Committeeman, Arthur Doyle, assistant auditor, James Hendricks, Louisville, and the Chief Clerk at the Reformatory.

Frank Blair, "alias John Doe," who was serving a term in the State reformatory for a holdup and attempted murder in Louisville, was pardoned by Governor Edwin P. Morrow, early in June. At the time of his release he was under indictment in Evansville, Ind., on a charge of theft of government property, and was wanted in Indianapolis for complicity in the robbery of a bank at Leavenworth of $50,000 worth of Liberty Bonds in 1918.

When he left the institution at Frankfort, Blair was taken in the automobile of Maurice Galvin, of Covington, member of the Republican State Central Committee, to Paris, where he caught a train and left for parts unknown. Here the trail was lost and the man disappeared.

Chairman George White, of the Democratic National Committee, is not ready to resign, nor is he now giving any consideration to severing his connections with the managing body of the Democratic national party.

This has been made plain in denial of rumors which have been current for some time, based largely on the understanding that Chairman White might be a candidate for the Democratic nomination in Ohio next year, where there is every indication that the State will again swing into the Democratic column because of dissatisfaction with the record of the national administration and the alleged failure of Congress, and because of what is already a revolt against the Republican State administration.

Mr. White has not yet made up his mind that he will be a candidate, though he is in an exceedingly receptive mood. But candidacies under the Ohio primary laws do not need to be announced until next August, and before that time there is much that can be accomplished in the organization work of the Democratic party, which is already well in hand.

The fall opening of the Printing School at Macon, Ga., will occur during the first two weeks in September. There is in prospect a full attendance with a class of 100 students coming from all parts of the United States. Wherever students have gone to work recently, there have been almost without exception calls for others trained in exactly the same way. This is due to the fact that the course of study has been developed according to the needs of employers to whom students have gone in the past.

One student has just written the school as follows: "I have been in touch with young Livingston, who came to your school last January. He is now earning an average of $71 a week as a linotype operator. He tells me that he had never earned over $15 a week before he attended the school.

"My own experience in school has been of great help to me in every way."

DISTRICT MANAGER EXPLAINS TELEPHONE TROUBLE

Mr. O. R. Webber, of Winchester, District Manager for the Cumberland Telephone Company, is in Paris, for the purpose of investigating and remedying, if possible, the conditions existing in regard to the poor service being rendered local patrons. Mr. Webber was a caller at THE NEWS office, and in a statement, said, among other things:

"Our company is aware that there is always room and, perhaps, just grounds for complaint and criticism of the service, and we believe this results eventually in good to the service. The trouble here, as in other places, is that we cannot secure experienced operators to conduct the work, and are having the time of our lives with 'students' who have to be taught the intricacies of the work, and who, like all green hands, do the best they can under the circumstances. We are making arrangements to have several experienced operators transferred from other exchanges to the Paris office, and making other arrangements for bettering the service."

"It is our aim and our desire to have the people of Paris given proper service, and we will not rest until this is done. We assure the patrons of the local exchange that conditions here will soon be adjusted for the better and that the best will be none too good. We want the public to understand the difficulties under which we are working, and to ask for a suspension of judgment with the assurance that all will be well in the end."

FINDS VALUABLE DIAMOND LOST ON ROAD.

Among those who accompanied the Dixie Highway motorcade to Paris last Friday morning was Dr. Edward Richardson, a prominent dentist of Corbin. When at a point about four miles from Paris his car developed tire trouble. Dr. Richardson alighted to give the tire attention, and in some manner the cluster set in his scarf pin, a large diamond, with a cluster of small ones, was torn from the pin. Dr. Richardson did not discover his loss until he came to Paris.

A diligent search of the machine failed to turn up the missing gem. At the suggestion of THE NEWS man, to whom Dr. Richardson was telling his loss, he returned to the place where he had alighted from the car, and after a long and patient search, was rewarded by finding the diamonds uninjured.

MOTORCADE PASSES THROUGH

Paris was on the map Friday for a visit from the Dixie Highway tourists, bound for Cincinnati, but the "cade" didn't even wobble in their journey through. They passed through all right, turning into Eighth street, out the Cynthiana pike, which, of course, was the original program, the route having been determined by pathfinding cars.

Rudolph Davis, representing the Commercial Club, was stationed at the corner of Main and Eighth streets, from which point he directed the motorcade into Eighth street. Several belated cars stopped over in Paris, while the tourists inspected the city, and admired Bourbon county's handsome court house and other buildings.

A reception program prepared by the Paris Commercial Club for entertainment of the visitors was put in the discard after it was learned that the proposed visit of the tourists would be like an airplane visit—rapid and with no stop-overs allowed.

STEERING GEAR BREAKS

While coming to Paris, on the North Middletown pike, early yesterday morning, Mr. and Mrs. John Maher had a narrow escape from serious injury when the steering rod of the machine in which they were riding, broke, causing the car to plunge into a telephone pole on the side of the road.

The force of the impact broke the pole down and badly bent the fender and part of radiator of the car. Mrs. Maher's hand was cut by striking a piece of glass. Mr. Maher escaped injury. Another car was secured and the damaged car sent to a garage for repairs.

STRINGENT RULING MADE BY STATE HEALTH BUREAU

Supplementing a recent opinion in which he held that druggists who sell patent medicines that have been advertised from wagons in the street the advertisers naming the druggists from whom the nostrums could be obtained, are subject to prosecution, Elwood Hamilton, attorney for the State Board of Health, now has issued Dr. A. T. McCormack, State Health Officer, another opinion in which he says that the person advertising the nostrums from the wagon also is subject to prosecution.

This opinion is based on the law which states that vendors of patent medicines must pay $100 for their licenses and then proceed to strengthen this by declaring that it is immaterial whether the patent medicine is sold by the vendor or otherwise.

"Such a sale," Mr. Hamilton summed up the situation, "would undoubtedly subject the person advertising the medicines from the wagon to a penalty for failure to procure a license before making the sale." In this connection the Kentucky Druggist, the official organ of the Kentucky Pharmaceutical Association, contains this editorial comment:

"The writer agrees with Dr. McCormack that no reputable druggist would be a party to any scheme that

LETTING FOLKS KNOW

It is an uncommon sight, especially in the middle west, in riding through the country to see roadside stands in front of farm houses on which various farm products, such as fruit, pumpkins, melons and tomatoes are displayed. It seems strange, remarked one man not long ago, that so few of the farmers take the pains to tell about their wares in an ad in the local papers. It would bring many an automobile party to their door.

EARLY TRIALS FOR CRIMINALS ADVOCATED

CINCINNATI, OHIO, Sept. 9.—The history of organized government demonstrates that the speedy trial of criminal cases and the swift and certain punishment of criminals effects a reduction in the volume of crime, Edwin W. Sims, president of the Chicago Crime Commission, told the American Bar Association at its meeting here recently.

"On the other hand," Mr. Sims continued, "increased crime follows closely on the heels of delayed trials and deferred punishment. In short, crime increases or decreases in the proportion that punishment is swift and certain. The speed with which a crime is punished has a great deal more to do with the preservation of law and order than the severity of punishment."

"Criminal laws bear close analogy to natural laws. A child puts its hand in the fire but once. One experience is sufficient. It is not necessary that the injury be severe."

"Existing criminal laws in America are the evolution of centuries of practical experience. As they have been developed, they are invaluable. There are those, however, who attack the theory of punishment and who, contending crime is a disease, recommend and urge that punishment be abolished and some other form of treatment substituted. It is a grave mistake to interfere in any way with, impede or hamper the enforcement of existing laws which have been centuries in development at least until the experiment has been tested thoroughly and found to be practical."

"Three years ago the Chicago Association of Commerce appointed and financed a crime commission. It does not of itself undertake the apprehension nor the prosecution of criminals. The commission limits its activity to an investigation of crimes of violence, murder, burglary and robbery. It early reached the conclusion that the principal avenue of escape was the delay in the trial of criminal cases."

"The commission was organized in the year 1919. Data collected for that year showed there were 110 murders to 1,000,000 of population in Chicago, as against nine to the 1,000,000 in Great Britain and thirteen to 1,000,000 in Canada. This meant that during 1919 there were more murders in Chicago with a population of 3,000,000 than in the British Isles with a population of 40,000,000.

"For years in Great Britain and Canada, murder cases generally have been disposed within sixty or ninety days. In American cities there practically are no murder cases being tried within ninety days."

"April 1, 1920, 135 persons previously indicted for murder were awaiting trial in Chicago. In 104 cases the accused were at liberty on bond. The situation was brought to the attention of the courts and officials by the Crime Commission with the result that four Judges, then in the civil courts, volunteered to sit in the Criminal court and try cases until the murder docket was cleared. The trial of these cases resulted in sentencing of twelve to hang and twelve to the penitentiary for from one year to life."

Murder Rate Cut In Half
"The effect on the number of murders in Chicago was electrical. Immediately the murder rate there dropped 51 per cent, where it has since remained. The record for the first seven months of each of the last three years is as follows:

1919	232

"In compiling its report on continuances, the Crime Commission ran across a case and in December 1919, eight and one-half years after the crime was committed, the defendant was placed on trial. The evidence seemed to be convincing and the case was ably presented by the prosecuting attorney, notwithstanding which the jury returned a verdict of 'not guilty.'

"The jurors in explaining how they came to reach that verdict in the face of the evidence presented, stated they felt there was some reason, which was being withheld from them, for the nearly nine-year delay, and that under such peculiar circumstances they concluded to return a verdict of 'not guilty.'

WHERE WERE HIS INSIDE BRACES?

A certain Congressman once voted for a mischievous measure. He knew that he was doing wrong, but he stifled his conscience in obedience to the demands of political expediency. Not long afterwards, while on a visit to his home, he met an old friend on the street. After they had exchanged greetings, the friend frankly told the Congressman how much disappointed he was by that vote.

"You voted wrong on that question, John," said the friend. "You knew it was wrong. How did you happen to vote that way?"

"Well, yes," admitted the Congressman, reddening, "I'm afraid it was not the right way to vote. But you have no idea what pressure was brought to bear on me."

"Pressure!" echoed the friend. "But man, where were the inside braces?"

The question was a scorching one; it mercilessly exposed the Congressman's weakness. No character is strong that is not buttressed with principles and convictions. Without them any man's character will crumble into pitiful ruin whenever the pressure from without becomes at all severe.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

SEPTEMBER 2, 1921

Announcement!

Mr. Edsell B. Ford, President of the Ford Motor Company, makes the following announcement:

"We are making another reduction in the prices of Ford cars and the Ford truck, effective today. The new prices average $70.00 under former prices, and are the lowest at which Ford cars and trucks have ever been sold. List prices, F. O. B. Detroit, are now as follows:

	New Price	Old Price	Amount of Reduction
Chassis.....	$295	$345	$ 50
Runabout.....	325	370	45
Touring Car.....	355	415	60
Truck.....	445	495	50
Coupe.....	595	695	100
Sedan.....	660	760	100

"This is the third price cut during the past twelve months. On September 22, 1920, the price of the Ford touring car was reduced from $575 to $440; June 7th to $415, and now to $355, making total reductions in this type of $220, or 38 per cent. The same proportionate reductions have been made in all other types. One year ago the price of the Ford sedan was $975; today it lists at $660 with the same equipment.

"We are taking advantage of every known economy in the manufacture of our products in order that we may give them to the public at the lowest possible price, and by doing that we feel that we are doing the one big thing that will help this country into more prosperous times. People are interested in prices, and are buying when prices are right."

"The production of Ford cars and trucks for August again broke all previous records with the total reaching 117,696. This is the fourth consecutive month in which our output has gone over the hundred thousand mark, the total for the four months being 463,074, which has gone a long way in making possible the present reductions. June this year, with an output of 117,247, was the previous record month."

"One noteworthy feature of our sales is the increased demand for Ford trucks and cars for salesmen. This class of commercial business has been gradually increasing the past sixty days and we interpret it as a very good sign of improvement in general business."

"No reduction has been made in the price of the Fordson tractor, and none is contemplated."

Go over these new prices! See how little it costs to become the owner of a Ford car or a Ford truck. Can you really afford to do without one any longer?

Let us tell you more about it, and advise you regarding the delivery of the particular type of car in which you are interested.

"For a year I didn't know what it was to have a well day, so I know how to appreciate the splendid health Tanlac has brought me," said Mrs. Florence Krauss, 419 South Shelby street, Louisville.

"It was just about a year ago that my appetite began to fail and after every meal, no matter how little I ate, I began to suffer discomfort. My condition kept growing worse steadily and finally my nerves gave way and I got little rest either day or night.

"I can say for Tanlac that it has brought me health, strength and happiness. I gained ten pounds in three weeks time and for the first time in over a year I have strength enough to do my house work. I feel that life is worth living again."

18TH AMENDMENT "UNPARDONABLE," IS BISHOP'S OPINION

"To me, the writing into our constitution of the Eighteenth Amendment was unpardonable," said the Right Rev. Thomas F. Galliher, Episcopal Bishop of Tennessee, on the eve of the fourth conference of the province of the Pacific of the Episcopal church, at Salt Lake City, Utah.

Bishop Galliher also discussed the League of Nations, rejection of which by the United States "was nothing but a denial of every principle for which this country went to war."

"Prohibition is a delicate question," he said, "but I always have asserted my belief and never have evaded a question. When the saloons were going, the church was making headway against what evil there was in liquor. To my mind it was nothing short of hysteria that put over a restriction which could not help to suppress that evil."

ARE YOU RHEUMATIC?

Many Pangs That Pass For Rheumatism Are Really Due to Weak Kidneys

It is rheumatism? Not every pain is. Weak kidneys let uric acid collect.

Uric acid causes many queer pains. In the thigh it's sciatica; In the back, lumbago; In the nerves, neuritis.

Gout, gravel, dropsy are uric troubles.

When you suspect the kidneys use Doan's Kidney Pills—

The home-recommended remedy. Paris testimony is the best proof. Ask your neighbor.

Read this Paris woman's story:

Mrs. J. N. Reynolds, 255 Winchester street, says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills to do me more good than any remedy I have ever used and I recommend them highly. I suffered from rheumatic pains and kidney trouble. I could always tell when the weather was going to change, as my limbs would become very painful. I would become dizzy, especially when I first got up in the morning. My kidneys were not acting regularly, either. I was not long in getting relief after I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and felt better in every way after using them."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Reynolds had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

OUR NATIONAL PROBLEMS

Our national problems are our individual problems, multiplied about one hundred million times. There are that many people in the United States.

If we live beyond our means, we become hard up.

If we squander our money on foolish things, we find it difficult to buy the necessary things.

If we fail to guard our health, we become ill.

If we continually try to get the best of our neighbors, they become suspicious of us and we have no friends.

If we go about with a chip on our shoulders, we have to be on the lookout for a fight.

The things that are the matter with us as a nation are merely the things that are the matter with us as individuals.

And the rules of conduct that will insure us peace and prosperity as individuals will also insure us peace and prosperity as a nation.

A man out west punched a rattle snake with a fountain pen to see if it was alive. It was—and now that man's isn't.

ALL CROPS AFFECTED BY DRY WEATHER

(Business Review)
New crops are an indication of new wealth and while recent crop returns are in some instances disappointing, a better feeling is evident in the farming districts. Farmers continue to practice economy and they are confining their purchases to necessities.

According to latest reports of the United States Department of Agriculture, the winter wheat crop of the whole United States now stands at 542,600,000 bushels, which is 36,000,000 bushels less than last year and 30,000,000 bushels under a five year average. The United States yield per acre is 14 bushels as compared with 15.3 bushels last year.

The corn crop, although affected by drought, is in good condition in most parts of the country and at present is far enough advanced that a very good yield is assured. Recent rainfall has caused this important crop to improve rapidly throughout Ohio. In Kentucky the early crop has been severely injured, but the later planting is making a better showing. In Pennsylvania the crop is reported to be in fine condition in nearly all sections.

Oats threshing is still in progress. The yield is reported as unsatisfactory and generally below average. The stand in many fields has been too short to cut with the binder and has been cut for hay. Heads are poorly filled and the grain is light. Hay and pastures are reported in fair condition. Present prospects are that the Irish potato yield will be below normal.

Although Burley tobacco has been severely damaged by drought, there is still much of the crop that will make a fair yield if given favorable weather. Since the Blue Grass section is principally a farming community, the decrease acreage in the Burley crop has caused the demand for farm labor to slow up.

SHOCK KILLS WINNER OF 80 CENTS AT RACES

The excitement of watching a horse win 80 cents for him proved fatal to W. E. O'Connell, 814 Hart street, Cincinnati, who fell dead of heart disease at the Latonia race track Saturday afternoon.

O'Connell, who was 35 years old, had a place bet on Harvest King and was standing close to the rail to watch the finish. When the horses came under the wire with Harvest King in second place O'Connell collapsed and Coroner R. Lee Bird, Latonia, who examined the body, said that he evidently had died instantly. Harvest King paid $2.80 for $2 on the place bet.

JESSE L. LASKY PRESENTS
Cecil B. DeMille's Production
'Something to Think About'

A picture that peers deeply into human hearts and unfolds a wonderful drama made from the joys and sorrows of ordinary life. Strikingly different in theme from anything De Mille has done in the past, but, like his previous splendid successes, sumptuously produced and directed with the genius of a master. An inspiring entertainment treat!
